Reading and Reports for January

During January, students should read a book of their choice. There will be no book report due until March. (The February reading assignment will be to read a mystery.)

Mission Reports are due: January 23 (Monday)
Mission Models are due: January 27 (Friday)

What's Happening in Fourth grade this week?

Religion: We will explore the relationship between God and the Israelites; the Ten Commandments are God's Laws for His people.

Math: Multiplication review; Division skills begin; multiplication mastery tests continue;

Reading: We begin reading the wonderful full-literature chapter book: Because of Winn-Dixie

Spelling: Unit 15 – Silent Consonants; Complex Consonants; plus 5 Challenge Words

Vocabulary: Unit 15 – Words from foreign languages

Social Studies: Life at the California missions; natives revolt; Californios and life on the ranchos

Science: How changes in air, land, and water can affect plants and animals; protecting the environment; how living things become endangered

Language Arts: We'll continue our writing/art project on Charlotte Parkhurst ("One-Eyed Charley") from our novel: Riding Freedom
We will also work on writing bibliographies.
